

IB SEHS Final Project – Motivational Video

Due Friday June 1st – NO exceptions

You and your partner will be responsible for creating a 2-4 minute motivational video. The video can be light-hearted as desired but must include real, accurate information from the class.

Information that must be included in video:

- Must include a specific component we discussed during Psychology of Sport (intrinsic motivation, mental toughness, confidence, etc).
- Must include a minimum of 50% original video. Less than 50% of the video may be 13 second clips (or less) from other videos.
- Entire video must include ALL ORIGINAL VOICE OVER. No vocals from other movies or video clips.
- Background music must be in the background throughout the video.

Must designate group members for the following Jobs:

- Master videographer
- Chief script writer
- Principal script/video editor
- Award winning actors & actresses

Required components of project:

- Storyboard 10 points
 - 1 “slide” per minute – general visual and themes must be included
- Script 20 points
 - Word for word script – must be edited and grammatically correct
- Video 30 points
 - 2-4 minutes of well edited and continuous video
 - Clear evidence of editing and revision of video
 - Doesn’t look like your 7 year old sibling made it
